Withdrawals and Deferrals

If you wish to discontinue your training after commencement then you must inform us of the reason for this decision. We will attempt to assist you in every way we can including readjusting your payment plan, helping you with complaints or appeals, or providing you with additional support or time (within the rules of the course).

If we cannot assist you and you still wish to discontinue your course then you will have to provide us with written notice that includes the date you will withdraw from your course. We will then amend your training plan with us. We will then assess if there are any fees refundable and if you have attained any Units of Competency for which you will receive a Statement of Attainment.

Where you withdraw then all fees applicable will still be payable, including if you have entered into a Payment Plan – the direct debits will continue.

Withdrawal after enrolment and prior to commencement:

- If you wish to withdraw after enrolment and payment of your Enrolment Fee and before you commence your course (as defined above) then you will be entitled to a refund of any fees paid (or cancellation of any arrangements entered) over and above the non-refundable enrolment and administration fee
- While we would love you to continue in your course, it is important to make an application to withdraw before commencement (as defined above) to be eligible for any refund

Withdrawal after the commencement but before the midway point:

- Once you commence training (as defined above) then 50% of all fees payable or paid above the enrolment fee become non-refundable
- You may apply for special consideration and this may be changed at the manager's discretion

Withdrawal after the midway point

- No refunds will apply if you withdraw after the midway point (as defined above)
- You may apply for special consideration and this may be changed at the manager's discretion

Deferring your course

- We do not advise deferring your course unless it is necessary.
- If you do wish to defer then you may defer for up to 6 months from the date of your notice to defer (which must be made in writing).
- If you do not re-commence your course with us at the time agreed then your enrolment may be cancelled, and fees apply as above
- At times, you will only be able to defer by changing your chosen option for delivery
- Upon returning from deferral, your training plan will be altered accordingly
- Entitlements for deferring will be determined on a case-by-case basis at the discretion of Just Careers Training
