About this Course

This course outlines the required competencies, skills, and knowledge for extracting and serving espresso coffee drinks using professional espresso machines and grinders. Participants will learn to recommend coffee drinks to customers, choose and grind coffee beans, prepare and evaluate espresso beverages, and operate, maintain, and clean espresso machinery and grinders. It also includes referring complex equipment repairs to professional technicians.

This unit is relevant to any hospitality environment offering espresso coffee drinks, such as cafes, restaurants, bars, clubs, and venues hosting functions or events. It is designed for espresso machine operators who work semi-independently and with minimal oversight.

The competencies gained in this module must comply with federal and state/territory laws, Australian/New Zealand standards, and industry best practices.

How you will be assessed

Your training is competency based, meaning that you will need to provide evidence that you have met the required competency. This evidence will be generated and or collected by:

- Tasks and assignments you undertake during your study
- Work placement or workplace evidence signed off on by your supervisor.

In order to attain this unit of competency you will need to be assessed. This assessment aims to demonstrate that you have the required skills and knowledge and that you can apply these in the workplace. During your training session you will be required to complete a class assessment on the information provided. This is an open book assessment. This is used to demonstrate that you have the required knowledge for attaining this unit. You will have up to 7 days to submit this for marking.

If you answer incorrectly, then you will be allowed further attempts to choose the correct answers to the questions after reviewing the information provided again. You will be allowed three attempts during your training session after which you will need to speak to one of our trainers to better understand how we can help you attain this unit of competency.

The assessor will also use your logbook to confirm your application of the skills and knowledge required.

Achieving a result of “Satisfactory” for all the assessment and evidence requirements of a unit is required to achieve a result of “Competent” for the Unit of Competency.

Where a result of “Not Satisfactory” is achieved then your trainer will assist you in getting to the required result of “Satisfactory”.

Where a result for a Unit of Competency is “Not Yet Competent”, then your trainer will assist you in meeting all the requirements of the Unit within the required time.

Outcome

The qualification is nationally recognised. Upon successful completion of the required assessments you will be awarded a Statement of Attainment for the following units:
