About This Course

Successful completion of this course results in nationally a recognised Unit of Competency TLID0020 Shift materials safely using manual handling methods.

A third of all workplace injuries are the result of poor or incorrect manual handling. This unit involves the skills and knowledge required to shift materials safely using manual handling methods.

It includes assessing the risks associated with relocating the load, planning the relocation process and carrying out the relocation in accordance with the plan. Work must be carried out in compliance with the relevant work health and safety (WHS)/occupational health and safety (OHS) regulations concerning the manual handling and movement of loads.

People Who Need This Unit of Competency Include:

Any persons who in their workplace is or may be required to lift, move, push, pull, carry, hold or restrain objects. This may include any person from entry level to senior management.

This course is designed for new entrants. It is also recommended for all levels of experience (will help to refresh your skills and knowledge). You will only be admitted if you meet the following prerequisites:

- Can ask questions to clarify instructions
- Are able to listen to instructions

Flexibility and Reasonable Adjustment

JUST CAREERS TRAINING is flexible in the format and timing of learning and assessment activities to ensure that we provide every opportunity for participants to demonstrate their skills and abilities.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)/Credit Transfer

If you feel that you already have the skills and knowledge covered in this course through prior learning, work experiences or general life skills then you may apply for RPL (Recognition of Prior Learning). The most practical benefit of RPL is that participants may achieve their competency in a shorter time and with no formal training.

During the RPL assessment, participants present evidence of their competency to our assessor who will then assess the evidence against the requirements of the course. Should the evidence meet the requirements of the course then participants may be awarded the unit and not require any training. Refer to the terms and conditions at the end of this document and/or contact us for further information about RPL assessments.

Fees and Charges

Payments may be made by contacting our office or through our secure website payment portal at www.justtraining.com.au. All of our courses have fair Terms and Conditions – please refer to our website for further information.

Participant Support

Trainers will provide participants with both telephone and email support. Email support is unlimited and telephone support is by appointment. There is a limit to telephone support of up to 15 minutes, with no more than 1 session. Additional phone support may be purchased.

Visits to our training office or additional one on one training in the workplace or another suitable site may also be arranged (subject to trainer availability and for a fee). JUST CAREERS TRAINING offers support to all Participants with their learning needs; we can tailor or adjust the training and assessment program to assist people with learning issues and to more limited degree personal issues.

Access and Equity at Just Careers Training

We are committed to ensuring that we offer training opportunities to all people on an equal and fair basis. All participants have equal access to our training programs irrespective of their gender, culture, linguistic background, race, socio-economic background; disability, age, marital status, pregnancy, sexual orientation or carer's responsibilities.
